NEWS OF THE DAY.

"Hope deferred maketh the heart sick." We had hoped to have been through the worst of our troubles to-day, but the foolish conspirators and machine men still remain out on strike.

Last week there were nine cases of small-pox notified in the Colony, eight being fatal. All were Chinese and one was imported. There were three fatal cases of diphtheria (two Chinese and one Indian) and one non-fatal occurrence of enteric fever (Chinese).

The Rev. C. Silvester Horne, Liberal M.P. for Ipswich, has secured a verdict for £1,100 damages against John Bull and Mrs. Bull for having published libels stating that he had blasphemously bracketed Mr. Asquith with God and Right in a hymn sung at a Thanksgiving service after the last general election.

On the arrival of the s.s. On Lee from Kowloon a Chinaman was observed by the police carrying a canvas bag, the appearance of which seemed suspicious. When the man observed that he was being watched he dropped the bag and endeavored to escape. He was arrested, however, and the bag on being opened was found to contain nine modern revolvers and two rifles. At the Magistrate's today Mr. E. A. Irving sentenced the man to six weeks' imprisonment in lieu of payment of $200 fine, adding six strokes of the "cat" to boot.

THE REVOLUTION.

Hongkong Troops Leaving for North.

In view of the continued unsettled state of affairs in the North it has been deemed advisable to despatch a body of troops to Shanghai from Hongkong, presumably to be ready for movement to some of the more disturbed centres should the desirability make itself felt.

Accordingly there leaves to-morrow by one of Jardine's steamers one Company of the R.O.Y.L.I., 25 men of the Royal Garrison Artillery, 20 Royal Engineers and seven other units.

VOLUNTEERS CALLED OUT.

To Guard Headquarters.

It has long been a source of dissatisfaction in Volunteer circles that with the garrison stationed in Hongkong the Volunteers have been completely overshadowed when any local trouble has arisen and they have not been called out as is their due in most places where no military are stationed, and as is frequently the case in Shanghai. It is also thought that this is in a measure responsible for the smallness of the number of those who join the local corps. Happily the services of the garrison or the Volunteers have been rarely requisitioned in the Colony for many years, but now with the trouble in China an opportunity has been offered to the corps, if not to distinguish themselves, at least take part in the work for which they have been specially trained. The condition and physique of the men, coming almost straight from the annual camp, can be said to be at its best so that the extra duties imposed upon them of guarding their own Headquarters at night will be cheerfully borne by the respective guards. The sentries take up their positions from to-night commencing with No. 1 Company, which will be subsequently relieved by the other companies, so that if it is imperative that the guard should be continued each man will have his allotted share as night guard.

CLAIM FOR ACCOUNTS.

At the Supreme Court this morning, before the Chief Justice, Sir Francis Pigott, the Fook Lung firm sued the Tan Wo firm and Chan Kit Shan for an account to be taken.

Hon. Mr. H. E. Follock, K.C., and the Hon. Mr. C. C. Alabaster, appeared for plaintiffs, instructed by Mr. C. E. H. Davis; and Mr. M. W. Slade, K.C., appeared for defendants, instructed by Mr. A. W. Follock.

The claim was that an account be taken of the amount due to the Fook Lung firm from defendants in respect to the share in the defendant firm belonging to the Fook Lung firm. Plaintiffs also claimed that an account be taken of the monies had and received by the defendant firm for the use of plaintiffs in respect of a license to use plaintiffs' trade mark, or in the alternative plaintiffs claimed payment from the defendant firm of the sum of $10,000, due and payable to them by defendant firm as money received for the use of plaintiffs in respect of the trade mark; the appointment of a receiver; the payment of such monies as may be found due to the Fook Lung firm from the taking of the accounts; an injunction to restrain the defendant firm and Chan Kit Shan from selling or otherwise disposing of the property of the defendant firm including its leasehold property, being Inland Lot No. 1,239, and from removing the business books, papers and other documents from the business premises of the defendant firm situate at No. 153, Bonham Street and No. 24, Cleaverly Street; further and other relief and costs of the actions.

Hon. Mr. Follock said that the Tan Wo firm did a large business in opium both in Hongkong and Macao. On the face of the pleadings he submitted that he was entitled to judgment.

His Lordship said that point decided in Chan's case.
